RPA NAMES ZACHARY KARAS VP OF GROUP RETIREMENT PLANS

Chicago, IL, June 2013 – Retirement Plan Advisors (RPA) has appointed Zachary Karas as Vice President – Group Retirement Plans.

“Zach exemplifies the integrity, commitment and respect for our clients that is the hallmark of RPA. We are proud to have him as a partner and a key part of the our team,” said RPA President Joshua Schwartz.

Karas began his career with The Hartford in 1984, advancing to Regional Manager, then Regional Vice President, and later Vice President - National Director of Government Sales. He led the sales, management and distribution of defined contribution plans in the governmental, not-for-profit and tax-exempt marketplace.

“With almost 30 years of experience in public sector plans in the corporate environment, I decided it was time to make the move to an independent advisory firm. As a registered investment advisor, RPA’s public sector focus allows me to form consulting relationships with my clients to better serve them,” said Zach.

Zach graduated from Connecticut College (CT) with a B.A. in Economics. He holds FINRA Series 6, 26, 63, and 65 registrations.

A Federally Registered Investment Advisor, RPA specializes in public sector Deferred Compensation and Defined Contribution retirement plans. Its unique focus on employers of all sizes provides clients with the same high-quality retirement plans and advice found on Wall Street. Today, RPA serves more than 750 plans with 50,000 participants and $3 billion in plan assets.
